Dear Father Arsen:

H.E. Archbishop Torkom Mancogian has accepted your 1983 Parish Council annual report, and enclosed is his letter of approval.

However, there were a few discrepancies in the reports which I trust we can clarify and accordingly adjust our records:

- a) It seems the Nominating Committee elected in 1983 has not presented a double or even a single slate of candidates for election of Assembly chairman and secretary. (See paragraph four of General Membership Minutes.
- b) The minutes show 93 dues paying members whereas page two of the annual report shows 94. Which is the correct number?
- c) The minimum number of Auditing Committee members to be elected is three (Article 14-f), whereas yellow sample ballot calls for the election of two members. Any reason?

We would appreciate your response to these queries, and many thanks for submitting your reports in time.

Respectfully,

Michael M. Kermian
Director
