V I R G I N I A :

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND, DIVISION I
THE 21ST DAY OF DECEMBER, 1973.

HAIGH JAMGOCHIAN

Plaintiff

vs.

REVONDA JAMGOCHIAN

Defendant

FINAL DECREE

This cause, in which a decree of divorce from bed and board was awarded to the plaintiff on October 2, 1972, came again this day to be heard upon the petition of the defendant, hereby filed by leave of Court, to have the divorce from bed and board merged into an absolute divorce from the bond of matrimony, upon proof of proper and legal service of notice upon the plaintiff as required by law, and upon depositions regularly taken in support of the said Petition and filed in accordance with law, and was argued by counsel.

Upon consideration whereof, the Court finds from the evidence, independently of any admissions of the parties in the pleadings or otherwise, that the parties are members of the white race and over the age of eighteen; that the parties have not cohabited as man and wife since their separation from each other on February 21, 1972, and that no reconciliation has taken place or is probable, accordingly it is ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that the divorce from bed and board is now merged into an absolute divorce from the bond of matrimony on the ground of wilful desertion of the plaintiff by the defendant for a period of more than one year, and that the bond of matrimony created by the marriage between the parties on September 9, 1965, is dissolved.

It is further ORDERED that the provisions regarding custody, visitation and support of Haigh Jamgochian, Jr., infant child of the parties, contained in the decree entered in this cause on October 2, 1972, are continued in full force and effect.

And nothing further remaining to be done herein, it is ORDERED that this cause is stricken from the docket and the papers placed among the ended causes.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF CHESTERFIELD

BETTY W. CUNNINGHAM, )

Plaintiff, )

v. )

CASE NO. 6812-80

C. THOMAS CUNNINGHAM, )

Defendant. )

FINAL DECREE

This cause, which has been regularly docketed, matured and set for hearing as to the defendant, who has failed to plead, answer or demur, came on this day to be heard upon the Bill of Complaint, upon proof of proper and legal service of process upon the defendant, upon the depositions of witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff, regularly taken after proper and legal notice to the defendant and filed in accordance with law, and was argued by counsel.

Upon consideration whereof, the Court finds from the evidence, independently of the admission of the parties in the pleadings, or otherwise, the following facts: that the parties are husband and wife having been lawfully married in Richmond, Virginia on September 19, 1953; that both of the parties are over the age of eighteen; that there were three children born of the marriage, all of whom are over the age of eighteen; that your plaintiff is now and has been for six months next preceding the commencement of this suit, a resident of and domiciled in the State of Virginia; that the parties last cohabited as husband and wife in the County of Chesterfield on April 12, 1980; that the parties have lived separate and apart without any cohabitation and without interruption since April 12, 1980; that the allegation that the parties have lived separate and apart without any cohabitation and without interruption since April 12, 1981 has been fully proved by the evidence, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for.

Accordingly, it is ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that the plaintiff, Betty W. Cunningham is now absolutely divorced from the defendant, C. Thomas Cunningham, from the bond of matrimony on the ground that the parties have lived separate and apart without any cohabitation and without interruption for a period of more than one year and that the bond of matrimony created by the marriage between these parties on September 19, 1953 is dissolved.

It is further ORDERED that the previous orders of this Court shall remain in full force and effect.

It is further ORDERED that, pursuant to Va. Code Ann. §20-79(c), all matters pertaining to support and maintenance for the spouse are transferred to the appropriate Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court having jurisdiction, for the enforcement of the decrees of this Court, or for the modification or revision thereof as the circumstances may require.

And nothing further remaining to be done herein, it is ORDERED that this cause is stricken from the docket and placed among the ended causes.
