OLD BUSINESS

There was no old business reported.

NEW BUSINESS

There was discussion regarding St. James Armenian Church having a booth in the International Boys' Festival. Statements on reasons for not participating in the festival in 1990 included, lack of volunteers, poor location of food booth and limited profit. Gerry Sarigian reported on past participation and cited options available such as a cultural booth. Sam Baronian, Jr. suggested that Donna Soghoian contact the Council and indicate a Council meeting date that the item may be placed on the agenda.

There was discussion regarding parish membership. It was noted that the increase in dues was a problem for some people and that there was a hardship fund for people who wish to be members but are unable to contribute the amount required. It was concluded that there needs to be specific policies and procedures for disseminating funds from the hardship fund. Additionally, it was concluded that there is a need for clarification of how to become a parish member.

There was discussion regarding the formation of an Editorial Board for the Parish newsletter, the Sevan. It was reported by the Council Chairman, Sam Baronian, Jr. that the formation of an Editorial Board was part of the plans for the Parish Council and it was indicated in the Chairman's report.

More communication between the governing body and the general membership was cited as a need. It was noted that according to the By Laws, the parish is required to hold an annual meeting. The parish may also hold special meetings as deemed necessary for a specific purpose. General suggestions were made to hold a meeting in addition to the General Assembly. Additionally, it was suggested that topics for parish council meetings be placed in the Sevan, so that members interested in a particular topic may attend.

There being no further discussion the meeting was adjourned at 3:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Pamela M Mazmanian
