As you are aware, 2001 marks the 1700th Anniversary of Armenia's conversion of Christianity. For 1700 years, Armenians have walked in the light of our Lord, keeping steadfast in their faith despite all obstacles. The record of our people remains a proud milestone in worldwide Christian history. How vital it is, then, that we celebrate it in an appropriate manner.

As a part of an extensive program of activities during this year, our Diocese is organizing a series of Armenian choral musical concerts, which will be held in New York and other key American cities with large Armenian populations. I would like to ask you as part of a select group who realizes the importance of such a project to please consider serving as a Sponsor for the New York Concert, scheduled to be held at St. Vartan Cathedral on Friday, October 19, 2001, by donating the sum of $1,000.

Our 1700th Anniversary Celebration Committee is inviting the Komitas Chamber Choir of Armenia (associated with Yerevan's prestigious Komitas State Conservatory) to tour America during Fall 2001. The 25-member chorus will sing under the baton of its dynamic conductor, Professor Hovhannes Mirzoyan.

I am confident that this concert tour will be an effective and powerful way to bring our 1700th anniversary celebration—no less than our faith and heritage—to the attention of a much wider audience in this great country. It will also be a wonderful cultural opportunity for our local communities. I look forward to your strong support of this project in New York City.

Mr. Sahan Arzruni, our New York Concert Sponsor Co-Chairperson, will contact you in the near future to receive your response, hopefully a favorable one, and discuss any questions you may have regarding the support of this important project.

With prayers,

Archbishop Khajag Barsamian

H. E. Mr. George W. McKenzie
Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary
Permanent Mission of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago to the United Nations
820 Second ave. 5th Floor,
New York, Ny 10017

Your Excellency:

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing in my capacity as Primate of the Diocese of the Armenian Church of America, to extend my personal invitation to you and your staff, to attend a special commemorative program at the Church Center of the United Nations on December 6.

You may be aware that this year marks the 1700th anniversary of Armenia's conversion to Christianity—a milestone in history that took place in A.D. 301, distinguishing Armenia as the world's first Christian nation. Our people are holding elaborate events all year long, in the Republic of Armenia and in communities around the world.

Our event at the UN Church Center is being sponsored by the Diocese, in cooperation with His Eminence Archbishop Renato Martino, Permanent Observer of the Holy See, and His Excellency Dr. Movses Abelian, Permanent Representative of the Republic of Armenia.

The hour-long program will feature a brief lecture, a few selections of Armenian sacred music, and a short video presentation. It is scheduled for Thursday, December 6, 2001, from one to two o'clock in the afternoon, at the Tillman Chapel of the Church Center for the United Nations, 777 United Nations Plaza (First Avenue and 44th Street), New York.

Please contact my secretary Mary Berberian at (212) 686-0710, or our NGO representative Adrienne Alexanian at (212) 286-0870, to confirm your attendance and that of any representatives. In the meantime, I look forward to greeting you on December 6. May God continue to bless your efforts on behalf of peace and justice.

With prayers,

Abp. K. Barsamian

Dear «Title» «LastName»:

During 2001, the Armenian Church is celebrating the 1700th Anniversary of Armenia's conversion to Christianity. This is a significant milestone in the life of a Christian Church that has witnessed Christ for 1700 years and has given countless martyrs to witness Christ and preserve the Christian faith and identity of a small nation.

To celebrate this important event in the life of the Christian Church, His Holiness Pope John Paul II; His Holiness Bartholomew I, Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople; His Holiness Alexi II of the Russian Orthodox Church; Dr. George Carey, the Archbishop of Canterbury, head of the Anglican Church; and the heads of 20 other churches will be visiting Armenia in September and October of this year to show their solidarity and celebrate this great event together with the Armenian Church.

To celebrate the 1700th Anniversary in the Greater Boston area, His Eminence Bernard Cardinal Law, Archbishop of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Boston, His Eminence Metropolitan Methodios, Primate of the Greek Orthodox Diocese of Boston and I, as co-sponsors, warmly welcome you to join us in a Celebration at the Roman Catholic Cathedral of the Holy Cross in Boston on Sunday, October 21 at 5:00 p.m.

The first portion of the Celebration will be a Concert of hymns of the Armenian Church performed by the Komitas Chamber Choir of Armenia that will begin at 5:00 p.m., and will be followed by a short Ecumenical Service at 6:30p.m. A reception for dignitaries and invited guests will follow at the Cathedral.

It is our fervent wish that you honor this auspicious occasion by joining us at this Celebration. Please favor us with your response by October 15.

With brotherly love in Christ,

Archbishop Khajag Barsamian
Primate
