PASTOR'S REPORT FOR 1973

Another year has passed in the life of the Holy Resurrection Armenian Apostolic Church in South Milwaukee, Wis. We thank God for the many blessings that He bestowed upon us.

The following is a general report of the Pastor's activities from 1972 through 1973:

We had five Baptisms, three weddings and eight funerals.

As we had promised in our first year's report, many things achieved great success; some of them need improvement, and some of them failed. Let's take them one by one:

1. Better communication is needed between Pastor and parishioner. For this purpose, we did the following: An organized home visitation was extended to each and every dues-paying member.
2. Whenever we found an appropriate occasion, we visited or contacted the families and birthday and anniversary cards were sent to all.
3. We made it a point to visit at Trinity Memorial Hospital regularly -- this means once a week, at times twice a week, but regularly -- comforting, praying and wishing the best for those hospitalized.
4. Church Services -- Every Sunday, we had appropriate Church Services. In our absence, whenever we were celebrating the Liturgy in Waukegan, or had gone to the Diocese, the Parish Council, Choir and Deacons were informed to celebrate the required services (see the choir report in this respect).
5. Church Affiliated Organizations -- We attended regularly all the meetings of the Church affiliated organizations, except when we were committed to perform important duties elsewhere. Here it is worthwhile to mention that we presided, guided and inspired the groups to achieve the best results of their labor.
6. AGBU Armenian School & Yerevan Dance Ensemble -- With the approval of the parish council and under our leadership, two institutions were organized in our community to help in the education of the meaning of the Armenian culture in the minds, bodies and souls of our present generation. Because of this, classes were set up under the immediate leadership of the following people:
 - a. AGBU Armenian School For Children -- Grace Hadjinian, Superintendent; Margaret Cohen, Co-Superintendent; Lorraine Nabedian, Secretary, and Mary Haidarian, Treasurer. Classes convened on Saturday mornings.

Pastor's Report --2

- b. AGBU Armenian School for Adults -- Alice Ohanian, Superintendent; Margaret Cohen, Co-Superintendent. Classes began September 29th and continued through October 5th. They were held on Fridays.
 - c. Yerevan Dance Ensemble -- Kathy Kaishian, Superintendent; Lynn Kaishian, Secretary and Mary Haidarian, Treasurer. Classes were held Wednesday evenings starting April 28th and continued through June 9, 1973 as a seven-week pilot project. The total enrollment for all the above classes was 64 students. From Saturday, September 29th through December 5th, total class enrollment for this period was 50 students.
7. Father Arshag's Social Concern Among Armenians As Well As Non-Armenians --
- a. See No. 6. Very similar to this, an Armenian School was started in the Waukegan Church by us. There was a total of 32 students enrolled there for the months of September through December.
 - b. Also in Waukegan, we organized an AGBU Chapter with a starting membership of 18.
 - c. We celebrated the Armenian Divine Liturgy on one occasion at Alverno College and on another occasion, we participated on the altar during another service there. We also participated in a service at one of the Polish Catholic Churches in downtown Milwaukee.
 - d. Television Program -- A continuous year-round weekly program consisting of opening and closing prayers were offered on Channel 6, each of five-minute duration with three different topics discussed.
 - e. A second-year Kiwanian in South Milwaukee.
 - f. An active member in the Clergy Association in South Milwaukee.
 - g. Radio program -- In the month of October, we preached four different sermons, each of twelve-minute duration. Armenian Church music was used for the opening and closing of each program. This was on WISN 1100 and started at 9:00 A.M. each Sunday.
 - h. Lectures were given at the following: Kiwanis Club of South Milwaukee and Oak Creek; the Lions Club of South Milwaukee, the South Milwaukee Womans Club, Cudahy Junior High East, South Milwaukee Nursing Home and Racine Ladies Auxiliary.

Pastor's Report -- 3

1. We conducted Bible Studies at the South Milwaukee Nursing Home regularly on Mondays for non-Armenians and starting in September, on Thursdays in Racine for Armenians.
8. Diocesan 75th Anniversary Celebration -- This was held primarily in Racine during the month of October and was chaired by Father Arshag.
 - a. Ecumenical Services were conducted in South Milwaukee, Racine and Waukegan.
 - b. Ninety-four Sunday School children gathered together on October 7th in Racine. Participating churches were South Milwaukee, Racine and Waukegan.
 - c. October 27th was Youth Day; basketball and volleyball games were played. The Archbishop's trophy for the Midwest was awarded. This is another first in this area. Later that evening, a cocktail party was held, during which an exhibit of Armenian art was displayed. A dance for the youth was also held in the Racine hall.
9. We served as vice-chairman on the Central Council of the Armenian Church Choir Association.
10. Visiting Clergymen to our community were: His Grace, Archbishop Tiran Nersoyan; His Grace, Sion Manoogian; Very Rev. Varoujan Dz. Kabaradjian and Rev. Father Arsen Barsamian. We are grateful for their personal visitation to the office of our Church.

As we stated at the beginning of this report, there are some things that need improvement:

1. A penny for your thoughts.
2. Eight members passed away and eight left the community, totalling sixteen. We had five newly registered members. So you see which direction we have to improve. If you don't care, who will care?
3. Our Church attendance needs improvement -- yes, we start at 9:30 A.M., but many of us know that our people start coming in after 11:00. If next time someone asks you how long the Armenian Church Service is, be honest.
4. Our worshipping needs improvement. You don't understand Armenian? We have an Armenian School for children and adults. If you don't understand the spiritual explanation of the wor's or the rituals, the $50 question is, why do you have a priest? This definitely needs improvement among our people. To convert the world, you must start with yourself.

Pastor's Report -- 4

5. Our interest and love towards culture, heritage, religion, youth, Church, Sunday School, Armenian School -- these are the things that need high priorities. Did you give any consideration personally? We did our part - why not do yours.
6. Diocesan Endowment Fund -- This is a diocesan level project. We, the priest, diocesan council members and parish council, along with our people's utmost cooperation, must be instilled with a desire to work and look among our people who might want to include in their wills our New York diocese. We need improved action regarding this most important plea.
7. Stewardship -- Every Armenian Church community has to furnish ten parishioners who will donate $100 on a yearly basis. If not, our local Church will be taxed $1,000 every year.

Where We Have Failed -- We are human beings. We have necessities, wants and needs. And, as members of any organization, our Church and community also have needs. Primarily, your Church needs you. Spiritually, you need your Church. Life is like this -- human life is a constant want and ought to be a constant prayer.

May God bless you in your faith.

Prayerfully,

Very Rev. Arshag Khatchadourian

1973 PARISH COUNCIL REPORT

The Parish Council is pleased to announce that following tradition, we can proudly point to another financially successful year for 1973. There were unusual obstacles facing this Parish Council this year, but with true Armenian spirit and perseverance, and with the help of God and our Hayr Soorp, many of the situations have been resolved.

The Parish Council would like to thank its parishioners for their continued moral and monetary support, and all affiliated organizations for their full cooperation for 1973.

We were blessed with a most devoted priest, Father Arshag Khatchadourian, who has unique talents and very high ideals. We pray that under his leadership and guidance, our Church will soar to even greater accomplishments than have taken place in the past year.

Recommended projects for 1974:

1. Repair back of Altar
2. Kitchen remodeling
3. New office equipment
4. Exhaust fan for Altar ventilation during summer months
5. Redecoration of the hall
6. Waterproofing washroom walls
7. Book racks at back of pews
8. Paint and varish exterior of Church
9. Fact finding committee to check into the feasibility of Church facility expansion (classes, Cultural Hall)
10. Celebration of Holy Resurrection Church's 50th anniversary
11. Paint exterior of Parish Home and garage

ST. HAROUTUNE (HOLY RESURRECTION) ARMENIAN CHURCH CHOIR
1973 ANNUAL REPORT

This past year of 1973, the choir has participated in the Divine Liturgy, starting with the morning services, Aravodian Jhamerkootiun, which is a first for the choir. This was only accomplished with the guidance and patience of Father Arshag.

On January 31st, 1973, the choir held its membership meeting, after choir rehearsal, at which time election of new officers took place under the presidency of Father Arshag, our pastor. Elected to office this year were:

Very Rev. Arshag Khatchadourian	Pres. & Choir Master
Mary Ambrookian	Chairlady
Hampar Kaishian.....	Vice Chairman
Namzar Kaprelian	Secretary
Mary Haidarian	Treasurer
Mary Lewis	Ass't. Treasurer
Mary Ambrookian	Organist
Hampar Kaishian	Choir Director

Upon the request of Alverno College Liturgy Committee, Father Arshag and the choir celebrated the Armenian Divine Liturgy in English, at Alverno College on Saturday February 24th, 1973.* The Sisters and students participated in the Holy Communion, which was another first for the choir and for the Armenian community.

Beginning in March and continuing through Easter, the choir participated in the Lenten services. Easter Sunday April 22nd, a special choir plate collection of $51.51 was taken at the request of the Choir Central Council. This amount was sent to the Choir Central Council in October 1973.

On Memorial Day May 28th, the choir sang the requiem services at the cemetery.

At our annual Madagh, which was held on Sunday July 22nd the choir assisted with the Madagh Blessing services.

The Twenty-seventh Annual Choir Assembly was held on October 19, 20 and 21, 1973 in Wynnewood, Pennsylvania, of which Father Arshag is Vice-Chairman. The following weekend, October 27th and 28th, the choir joined forces with choirs of Waukegan and Racine to commemorate the 75th Anniversary of our Diocese held at St. Mesrob Armenian Church in Racine, Wisconsin.

On December 24th, the choir presented its annual Christmas Eve services.

* Father Parr, the Chaplain of Alverno College, a Catholic Priest, assisted Father Arshag.

Weekly Choir rehearsals were held every Wednesday evening until The Armenian Dance Group found it necessary to hold their dance rehearsals on Wednesday's. The choir therefore changed their rehearsals to Thursday's to accommodate them. We've had one executive officers meeting on Wednesday April 25th, 1973 and two general membership meetings held on January 31st and September 1st, 1973.

The only source of income during the past year has been the proceeds from the soda machine. As another source of income, the choir is now selling Diocesan ball point pens.

Our goal for 1974 will be new robes for the choir and the preparation of the 50th Anniversary of Holy Resurrection (St. Haroutune) Armenian Church Ad Booklet.

The choir extends its warmest wishes and continued gratefulness to Father Arshag for all its time and patience. With his great love and knowledge of music, we have learned many Sharagans and appropriate variations according to the five major feast days. We will do our utmost to master these songs in order to help beautify our services. However, we are in great need of male voices and would like to extend our heartfelt invitation to all those who can sing to join the choir.

In closing "Ask Not What Your Choir Can Do For You But What You Can Do For Your Choir."

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Sunday School has had an active and profitable year beginning in January 1973 with the annual Christmas Pageant. During the Lenten period, the children were given mite boxes, the proceeds of which are annually sent to help support a young Armenian girl in an orphanage in Jerusalem. The A.C.Y.O.A. sponsored a Communion breakfast for the Sunday School in April. In June, eight students graduated, and the school recessed for the summer.

School began again in September with an enthusiastic staff of teachers and approximately thirty students. Mrs. Doris Jandegian, Mrs. Mary Hayalian, and Georgia Gavric joined teachers Violet Holupka, Helene Holupka, Grace, and Terry Ann Hadjinian.

On October 7th, the children and teachers participated in a special program for area Armenian Church schools commemorating the 75th Anniversary of the Diocese. The annual Thanksgiving dinner was held in November. The fiscal year was closed with the Sunday School Christmas Pageant held in the Church on January 6, 1974.

Unique this year was a program of films designed to supplement the Assembly program.

The Sunday School staff plans continued success in the coming year.

ACYOA REPORT

This year, our ACOYA has had much success in cultural activities.

The term started in June. New officers were elected. They were:

Janice Hayalian:	Chairman
Mary Kademian:	Vice-Chairman
Kathy Green:	Secretary
Sandy Esaian:	Treasurer
Steve Nersesian:	Historian

This year, Father Arshag and the ACYOA spent an enjoyable day at the State Fair. We also spent another day touring the Ramada Inn, and had lunch at the Steak Knife and that afternoon, we visited the Greek Orthodox Church in Milwaukee.

On September 16, the ACYOA had its Fifth Anniversary Dinner. The guest speaker was Mr. Edward Race, a guidance counselor at the Cudahy Senior High School.

A big activity of the ACYOA was the 75th Diocesan Anniversary celebration. Money for this was raised by a "4-square marathon", and a car wash. The celebration was a two-day affair. On Saturday, October 27th, we attended a breakfast, followed by an informal rap session. That afternoon, the girl's volleyball and boy's basketball finals were held. Our girls ended in second place, and our boys ended in third place. That night, there was a dance, which featured an American band, although Armenian music was played on records. The next day, all the area Armenian artists displayed their works at the art exhibit.

A toboggan party was held during the Christmas holidays, and there was a get-together at the Church hall later that evening.

New officers were elected and will start their terms in January, 1974.

HOLY RESURRECTION ARMENIAN APOSTOLIC CHURCH

ALTAR & SACRISTY REPORT

Altar and Sacristy duties are as follows:

Clean sacristy, Altar, side Altars and laundry weekly.

Keep charcoal, incense supplied for Sunday Badarak and special Church services.

Inventory supplies: wine, candles, incense, charcoal and oil. When low on supplies, notify parish council chairman.

Altar and side Altar cloths are changed throughout the year when instructed by Father Arshag. All wax is ironed off Altar cloths before they are put away.

Badarakee vestments, Altar cloths, and choir robes are cleaned during the year when needed. Mr. Ted Sidlak of Lake Cleaners, has generously done the cleaning for our Church free of charge. Mr. Sidlak only asks that we publish an announcement in our Church bulletin. During our annual bake sale, our Ladies Aid sent a tray of pastries to extend our appreciation to Mr. Sidlak, and also thank-you cards have been sent.

One week before Lenten Season, we prepare and decorate our Church in black as is our custom. We also place palms throughout our Church for Palm Sunday. After Lenten season all black cloths are cleaned from wax, ironed, labelled and packaged. They are stored in the sacristy room.

Usually before Easter or Christmas, the wax is removed from the candle holders, along with brass and silver religious items which are cleaned and polished. Again we would like to thank our faithful members who so willingly and tirelessly made this yearly job enjoyable.

We wish to extend our sincere gratitude to Father Arshag for his spiritual assistance in guiding us.

We hope that the oncoming Altar and Sacristy Committee will receive fulfillment in serving our Church as much as we have.
