PARISH COUNCIL -- 1978 -- CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

As my two year term as a Parish Council Member and Chairman comes to an end, I look back at the experiences which produced hardships, disappointments, some productivity, anxieties and hopes of things to come.

A slight slag occurred due to the shock of Hayr Soorp Arshag's leaving, creating a disappointment and hardship for us all. Yet this did not deter the activities of our church's Women's Guild. They were the only group to show a continuity of productivity.

Your Parish Council tried to provide as many services on Sunday mornings as it possibly could by having Hayr Shnork of St. John's Greenfield Church come when he was available. Yet every Sunday morning services were held to keep the church doors open. This was somewhat disappointing as only a handful of faithfuls attended these services. To those few I extend my heartfelt thanks.

Your Parish Council did finally get the roof repairs completed. There are still some repairs to be done such as fixing the soffit boards of the eaves. The boards are rotted and this task I leave to the incoming newly elected Parish Council.

My congratulations to this year's picnic committee for the successful picnic they managed. Our church realized a fair profit of approximately fifty percent over last year's profit.

Since Hayr Soorp Arshag left us your Parish Council has been in constant touch with the Diocesan headquarters and His Grace Archbishop Torkom Manoogian for a replacement. At the last Diocesan Assembly which was held in Detroit, His Grace informed your Parish Council Chairman that he had a student for us but he was three years away from being ordained, and asked if we could wait. Your Chairman said that the parishioners could not wait and that a priest was needed very badly for our parish if it was to remain in existence. He was very sympathetic and apologetic but there just isn't anyone available at this time.

The creation of a new budget always causes a financial burden on every family and person associated with our church. We must work toward removing any roadblocks that make it increasingly difficult for your Parish Council to operate profitably and with the costs of everything escalating as they are, we are going to have a more difficult time to balance the budget. You can all help in this aspect by paying your church dues on time rather than letting them linger. We realize that only through efficient and constant control of our costs, we we then be able to effectively maintain the operation of the church for you.

I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to my Parish Council members for their untiring cooperation in helping me see this past year through as Chairman.

To my Vice-Chairman Esay Esaian for his guidance and assistance.

To Kerope Balian our secretary, for his untiring efforts, constant attendance and guidance and taking care of the church.

To Tertad Tertadian, our Treasurer, for his taking care of the bills, billings and keeping of the books.

To Hampar Kaishian, our Assistant Treasurer for keeping the profits and expenses separated from one another and for showing a profit this year.

Also, my thanks to the following church groups, their untiring efforts and cooperation during this past year.

The Women's Guild
The Cemetary Committee
The Choir
The Sunday School
The Jr. A.C.Y.O.A.
The Library Committee
The Picnic Committee

A special thanks to a very young man, Master Marty Granec, who took care of the church grounds for us this past summer.

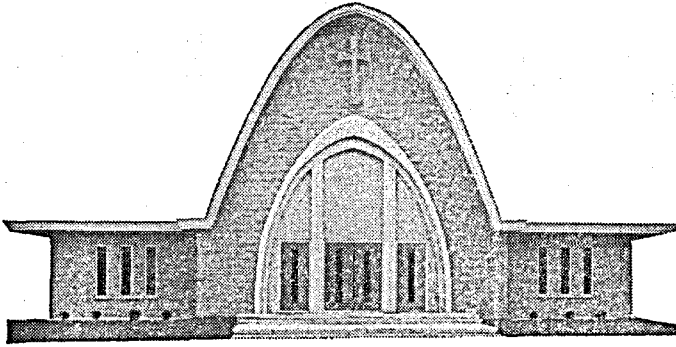

My congratulations to the newly elected Parish Council and I wish them great success in their endeavors for the coming year.

May I once again extend my most sincere thanks to all for helping me get through the ups and downs of this past year, and I wish that the cooperation you extended me carries on into the coming year to help ease the problems of the new Pa rish Council.

May God be with you and give you a healthy long life.

Respectfully,

Harold Baylerian

ANNUAL PARISH ASSEMBLY

SUNDAY, JANUARY 28, 1979

The meeting was called to order by Parish Council Chairman, Harold Baylerian at 2:30 p.m. There were twenty eight members present.

Elected to chair the meeting was Charley Kademian. Hampar Kaishian was elected as recording secretary.

Parish Council Chairman, Harold Baylerian gave the annual report of the Parish Council. He said there were ten regular Badaraks held during the year with short morning services held on all other Sundays. There were six funerals and three weddings. He said the Auditing Committee reported that all books were audited and found to be in good order.

Financial reports were given by the Parish Council, Women's Guild and Cemetary Committee. Copies were distributed among the attending members.

There were no reports from the Jr. ACYOA and Choir.

A question was brought up about overpaying on the 1978 Diocesan dues. Considering the fact that less dues are paid when there is no priest. Harold stated the dues paid were for 1977 when our parish had a priest.

Harold commedned the Ladies Aid for their job well done during the past year, and also thanked Margaret Kademian for the typing and printing of the Church Bulletins.

Kerovpe Balian has requested to be relieved of Parish Council duties for his remaining year.

Arousiag Kaloustian, Ladies Aid Chairman presented a check for $2500.00 to the Parish Council.

Russell Kaishian, Nominating Committee Chairman reported that twenty two letters were sent to candidates for Parish Council. Five refused and seventeen were left.

Elections were held for Parish Council.

Seven were to be elected for a two year term, and four elected to a one year term.

HOLY RESURRECTION ARMENIAN CHURCH CHOIR

1978 ANNUAL REPORT

Although Holy Resurrection Armenian Church did not have a full time priest during 1978, the choir did have an interesting year. With visiting guest clergy, we participated in about fourteen church services, starting with the Morning Service, Aravodian Jamerkootiune, and followed by the Divine Liturgy, Gomidas version.

One of the highlights of the year was that St. Mesrob Armenian Church Choir of Racine, invited our choir to participate in the Divine Liturgy on Sunday, February 6, to celebrate their church's 54th Anniversary. The Celebrant was His Grace Archbishop Torkom Manoogian. A dinner followed.

On Monday, February 6, a special meeting of the church executive officers of the various organizations held a meeting with His Grace in our church hall.

The choir held a special meeting on February 19. Marian Barsamian was elected delegate to the Choir Assembly to be held in Watertown, Mass. on November 3, 4, and 5. Father Dajad's parish. Mary Ambrookian, Chairman and Marian Barsamian were going to attend the assembly in November.

The Executive Officers of Choir are:

Mary Ambrookian.....Chairman and Organist
Hampar Kaishian.....Vice Chairman
Marian Barsamian.....Recording & Corresponding Secretary
Mary Lewis.....Treasurer
Harold Baylerian.....Choir Director

On April 30, we participated in the Martyr's Day church services with a dinner following.

May 14, Mother's Day, we were honored to have as visiting clergy Father Hoosep Hagopian of Etchmiadzin as the Celebrant.

July was our annual church picnic and the choir helped wherever needed to make this a successful affair.

September 28, the choir sent $25.00 to the central Choir Association for our plate collection donation.

The year ended for us, with Christmas Eve Services on Sunday morning with Divine Liturgy.

Although 1978 was not a very active year for the choir, I would like to thank my Executive Officers and each choir member for their faithful attendance and support, all of which was necessary to make this another successful year.

HOLY RESURRECTION ARMENIAN CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL

1978 REPORT

In addition to holding weekly classes, the Sunday School has undertaken a very special responsibility in the parish this past year. With the approval of Archbishop Torkom Manogian, the Sunday School volunteered to conduct a short Church Service each Sunday. The children implemented the 45 minute service with the help of some members of the Church Choir, Deacon Harold Baylerian and Acolytes.

The service begins at 10:00 A.M. and consists of a short morning service conducted by the Choir followed by the recital of the Creed, the reading of the Gospel, and the singing of various songs from the Badarak conducted by the Sunday School. The service begins and ends with the Lord's Prayer.

Sunday School classes are held following the service. Texts and other instructional materials are provided through the Diocese.

Although the children's service cannot substitute for weekly Badarak with a priest, the service at least fills some of the void in the absence of a parish priest.

As always, anyone who is interested in helping with Sunday School is most welcome. Parents may enroll their children at any time.

Enrollment: 15 students
