1997 PARISH COUNCIL REPORT

Parish council meetings were not held on a regular monthly basis due to the illness of your Parish Council Chairman, however, projects scheduled were accomplished.

The main roof was replaced and we are planning to renovate our main altar in 1998.

I sincerely thank our parish council for accomplishing all that had to be met in 1997. Thank you to Charley Kademian and Sema Hayalian for carrying on the administrative duties of our parish. Tony Hadjinian for maintaining our church grounds.

Our sincere gratitude to Rev. Father Vahram Hazarian, our visiting priest from Chicago, attending every other week to celebrate divine liturgy and conducting sacraments as needed. Der Hayr met the needs of our parishioners and visited our sick members with his blessings and giving communion. Thank you to Der Hayr and his good friends for their contributions of baked deserts for our annual bake sale.

Thank you to sub-deacon Armen Hadjinian for serving on the altar and to Raymond Reinke for assisting. Their continued dedication is recognized by the parish council and parishioners.

We would like to thank the following organizations:

The Women's Guild the backbone of our church. They are always ready to serve plus having their own programs and monthly meetings. Most successful was the annual madagh dinner and bake sale in November. Attendance by our sister parishes and the city was tremendous. We are continually asked "when is the next dinner".

The cemetery committee maintaining the grounds and keeping financial records. They are now working to update the equipment so maintenance will be much easier.

Our choir who are always attending and have served the church for many years.

Sunday school which is growing and follows the curriculum set forth by the Department of Religious Education.

We are a small parish and we thank you our members who are always ready to serve and your continued dedication.

Respectfully submitted,

Esahag Haidarian,
Parish Council Chairman

SUNDAY SCHOOL

We continue to hold Sunday School classes every Sunday when we have Church services. We currently have about seven students who attend regularly.

The following topics are shared with the children: the Bible, Feasts, Prayers, Sacraments, Special People of the Church, History, Badarak and the Life of Christ.

The children seem to enjoy the projects, activities and snacks. They are becoming more familiar with the prayers, songs, stories and people of the Bible. The children participate in communion and have proudly shared some to their knowledge and joy with the congregation during services throughout the year. They were especially excited to see the flowers they planted displayed on the altar and look forward to future spring blossoms.

I am pleased to announce that Laurice Desotel will begin to help teach the Sunday School class. I would also like to thank Nadine Zakian for her expertise and enthusiasm in helping throughout the year. Finally, I would like to thank the parents and grandparents for bringing the children.
