Dear Mr. Dorian:

Miss Lucine Amara, the noted opera star, will be in Atlanta sometime in May in the course of a tour.

She will be staying at the Sheraton Biltmore Hotel.

We thought it would be most appropriate for your community to arrange an evening with her.

If you share this feeling, it would be best to write to her directly and find what days she will be in the city and which of those days she will be free for such a gathering.

If such an invitation is to be extended, it would be fitting that it come directly and officially from you.

Prayerfully,

Archbishop Torkom Manoogian
Primate
