UPCOMING EVENTS:

October 29, Friday: Ara Dostourian will present the first in a series of talks on Armenian History & Civilization. Coffee will be served at 7:30 P.M., followed by a brief business meeting at 8:00, and then Ara's talk. Dessert will follow the program. Oglethorpe University is 3 miles North of Lenox Square, or exit 141 South off I-285 (Peachtree Industrial), 4484 Peachtree Rd. Turn right after entering the campus grounds and follow the road until you reach the Student Center on the left. Room B is on the main level of the Center to the right. Child care will be provided for $1 per child during the meeting.

November 10, Wednesday: Tour of Coca-Cola downtown executive offices for the ladies (gentlemen are also welcome!) will take place. Meet in the lobby of the building at 9:45 A.M. The Coke building is famous for its fine interior decoration and international art collection. It also houses a small museum of Coca-Cola memorabilia. Following the tour we will drive to the First Presbyterian Church (Peachtree & 16th Street) for lunch ($1.50). This tour is limited to 20 people, so reserve your spot for the tour and for lunch by calling Mary Dillon - 491-1644, or Nancy DiBoyan - 996-8493. Directions to Coca-Cola: Take I-75/85 to downtown exit 100 - North Avenue. Turn to the West (right if you are going South). The first light after Luckie Street beside the Coke tower is Plum Street. There will be a guard station on your left, and you may park there. If anyone would like to attend and needs a ride, please call Mary Dillon.

December 3, Friday: Ara Dostourian's Armenian History & Civilization series continues at 7:30 P.M. This program will be held at Shallowford Presbyterian Church, 2375 Shallowford Road, N.E., Fellowship Hall. Directions: Take I-85 to the Shallowford exit (between Clairmont and Chamblee-Tucker exits), turn East (right if you are headed North). Church is about a mile away on the left. Child care will again be provided for $1 per child.

AICAA NEWSLINE

December 31, Friday: Our New Year's Eve Party will be held in Room B in Oglethorpe University's Student Center. (See directions above). Nancy DiBoyan is planning the details of the event. If you would like to be on her committee, please call Nancy at 996-8493. A Raffle will be drawn during this party, but you do not have to be present to win(see Raffle below). But please be there!

MORE! MORE! MORE!

Raffle: Our New Year's Raffle has some fantastic prizes! The $1 tickets will go on sale at our October 29th get-together. Again, you do not have to be present on New Year's Eve to win. And now for the prizes:

First Prize: Ladies' rabbit jacket donated by Mr. & Mrs. Edward Mamaganian.

Second Prize: Custom-made trousers or skirt, donated by Yacoubian Tailoring Company (Kevork Yacoubian).

Third Prize: Fifty-dollar gift certificate donated by Armen & Joseph Jewelers Inc. (Armen Gheblikian).

Fourth Prize: Man's or Lady's Jules Jurgensen watch donated by S&V Digital (Simeon DiBoyan).

Fifth Prize: Twenty-five-dollar gift certificate donated by The Cheese Shop, Perimeter Mall (Ohaness Kabbenjian).

Our New Address: AICAA, P.O. Box 7277, Atlanta, GA 30357.

Phone Listing: The bad news is that we cannot afford a telephone book listing at this time. The telephone company charges non-profit organizations the standard business rate, which is beyond our reach at this time.

Welcoming Committee: We have established a "Welcoming Committee" in order to provide newcomers in the community with information about our Club's activities and anything else they may need to know. Chairman is Alice Matulich. If you would like to join the committee or if you know of an Armenian moving to town, please call Alice at 296-0993.

Armenian Language Lessons: Ara Dostourian, instructor for adult Armenian language lessons had planned to resume lessons in October. However, Ara now hopes to offer the language lessons at Mercer University at a later date. More to follow...

Children's Language Lessons: If you are interested in participating in a teaching program for children's Armenian lessons, please contact Seroj Nazarian at 292-7631. There is a possibility that we can get a programmed instruction package from New York.

Thanksgiving Dinner: In lieu of a Club-organized dinner, we are looking for Armenians who cannot spend Thanksgiving with their families. If you will be spending Thanksgiving alone or know of someone who will be, please let Nancy DiBoyan know. Her phone number is 996-8493. On the other hand, if you would like to share your Thanksgiving dinner with an Armenian, you should call Nancy.

Community News

Zepure Dostourian, Ara's mother, is resting after her recent hospitalization in Florida. Her address is: 1 Palm Drive, Ormond Beach, Florida 32074.

If you have any Community News, please call Gail Calu at 636-3987.

October 3, 1982

Dear Members and Friends,

Welcome to our Club's third year. The Board of Directors looks forward to serving you -- with your help -- to many fun gatherings. But first, we want to thank all who worked so hard to make the past year go. Thanks to Armen Karapetian and Adrina Richard. And to Barbara Tellalian and Nancy DiBoyan for heading-up our big fundraiser, the International Festival food booth. And Hilma Dehbanian for organizing our first Dance Ensemble.

Several functions are "in the works" such as Ara Dostourian's series on Armenian History & Civilization, a singles party, New Year's Eve Party at Oglethorpe, an Armenian talent show, AND...a proposed budget!

Our committee plans to meet on the 2nd Sunday of each month at 1 P.M. We invite anyone interested in attending to please do so (please call a board member to verify the time) -- your input will be most appreciated.

Thank you,

Mary Apelian Dillon
President
