Dear Mrs. Apelian Dillon:

His Eminence Archbishop Torkom Manoogian, Primate of the Diocese of the Armenian Church of America will be in Atlanta on his way from San Antonio, Texas.

His Eminence would like very much to meet with Armenians living in the area, and would appreciate if arrangements can be made to make this possible.

The Primate has set June 9, 1983 to visit Atlanta, and will join the Armenian community for a fellowship hour. He will arrive from San Antonio, Texas, on June 9th at 11:20 a.m. on Eastern Airlines flight #600, and will leave for Memphis on June 10th at 11:53 a.m. on Delta Airlines flight #1610.

His Eminence will celebrate Divine Liturgy at 6:00 p.m. and Holy Communion will be administered to any who may wish it (those wishing should fast after 3:00 p.m.). If there are any who wish baptism in the Armenian rite or requiem service, arrangements can be made withg you. A reception and dinner will follow at 7:30 p.m.

Kindly inform us if any such arrangements have been made.

May God bless you and your loved ones always for your concern in His Church.

With prayers,

Father Houssig Bagdasian
Vicar General
