Dear Friend of the Armenian Church:

The committee to form an Armenian Church Council of Atlanta has already met on two occasions. We cannot be recognized as a bona fide church council by the Diocese of the Armenian Church of America unless we get commitments from five or six individuals. We already have commitments from three. Being recognized as a church council of the Diocese in no way obligates us to work for the establishment of an Armenian Church in Atlanta (though that could be one of our far-reaching goals); it does, however, provide us with the means of periodically having an Armenian priest visit our city for celebrating the Divine Liturgy (Badarak), baptizing, performing marriage ceremonies, etc.

The committee would appreciate your giving us a commitment to be part of this church council. We do need your participation. Please sign your name to the section below, tear at the dotted line and send it in the enclosed self-addressed envelope.

Sincerely,

The Committee to form an Armenian Church Council of Atlanta

Mary Apelian-Dillon

Ara Dostourian

Talin Koseyan-Major

I hereby commit myself to being a member of the newly formed Armenian Church Council of Atlanta (signed)
