FEBRUARY 1985

FROM THE BOARD.....

February has been a busy time for all of us in the Armenian Community. Twice many of us were able to come together and participate in the Divine Liturgy as celebrated by His Eminence Archbishop Torkom Manoogian on January 27th and Hayr Soorp Mesrob Mutafian on February 2nd. On the social side, many were able to participate in the Dekalb County Festival of Arts, February 16th and 17th both as a money-making project for the AICAA and as an opportunity to view some fantastic art. As stated previously, this Board is trying very hard to present to you our friends every opportunity to join in and share various activities and events that are mutually enjoyable and satisfying. To that end we asked for your help and your dues. Many of you responded and sent your dues for which we thank you. To those of you who paid, you can look forward to having your membership cards in the mail in the near future!!! To those of you who have not yet had the chance to send your dues, we again ask that you please try to do so in the next few days.

We also asked for news that you might like to share with the community; well, we are doing it again. Only, this time, we are going to expand our newsletter and try to make it something of which we can all be interested in and proud of. Therefore, we are asking for:

1. social news you wish to share
2. birthdays and anniversaries
3. new Armenians in the Atlanta Area or the names of those friends who are interested in Armenian events.
4. community events you think we would like to participate in or support as an organization.
5. poetry, short stories, cartoons that you write or read that you would like to share with us. (in Armenian Or English)
6. advertising--do you have a business or event you would like us to know about or share (a small fee will be charged per advertisement--very small)
7. etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.
8. open letters or editorials you wish to share (however, we reserve the right to withhold them if they are damaging to the reputation of a single person or group or can be considered libelous.)

If you wish to contribute, please call Marilda Stepanian Andres 964-9316 or Stella Kazazian 231-4823. THANK YOU!!

We enclose the information on Vartananz through the courtesy of several very hard-working members and thank them for their efforts.
