PAST EVENTS

Following Armenian Language classes, Solemn Divine Liturgy was celebrated on Sunday, October 24, 1993, by Fr. Nersess Jebejian and the Armenian Church Of Atlanta Choir, accompanied by our pianist, Aram Partizian. Zareh and Zaven Najarian assisted Fr. Jebejian at the altar as our altar boys. We were honored to have the Doctors from Armenia, who were attending a seminar at Emory University, join us again in celebrating the Divine Liturgy. Along with the Liturgy, Fr. Jebejian also provided the congregation with Armenian historical religious education. He signified the importance of the "Holy Translators": Mesrob, Yeghishe, Movses the Poet, David the Philosopher, Gregory of Narek, and Nerses the Graceful. He also enlightened the congregation about the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

Following the Divine Liturgy, in the fellowship hall, Fr. Jebejian blessed the meal. Families and friends shared an enjoyable social gathering. The Armenian Church of Atlanta extends sincere thanks to all who contributed to the success of this function.

ARMENIAN LANGUAGE CLASSES

On Sunday, October 17, 1993, the Armenian Church of Atlanta opened the doors for its first Armenian Conversation classes. The classes introduced the students to the various sounds of the Armenian language; which very quickly became words, phrases, questions and answers spoken by the students. The enthusiasm of both students and teachers makes the classes a very rewarding experience for all involved. Our present class schedule, which is on Sunday afternoons from 3:30 - 4:30 for children and 4:30 - 5:30 for the adults, will take us through the Winter of 1993. These classes follow the Berlitz method, which encourages the student to think in the language being taught. In the Spring of 1994, we will once again offer Beginning Conversation classes, as well as Armenian Reading and Writing classes. The Armenian Church of Atlanta wishes to acknowledge and thank our volunteer teachers, Talin Major and Lorig Zinzalian - Smith.

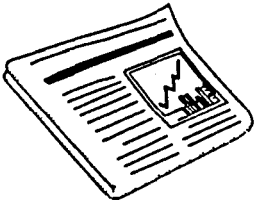

CHOIR NEWS

As the choir director of the Armenian Church of Atlanta, I would like to thank all the choir directors from various churches who helped us obtain the necessary musical materials over the past few months. Thank you, choir, for all your dedication and support. In the October/November 1993 issue of the Disney Channel Magazine, I found an article about Raffi - The King of Kids' Music. According to this article, Raffi Cavoukian made his singing debut in the Toronto Armenian Church Choir. The magic of music touches us all. This same magic brought forth new voices to our choir. I would like to welcome and thank them for their unfaltering cooperation, dedication and support.

Sincerely,
Lorig Zinzalian - Smith
