Dear Mr. Sarkisian:

I am pleased to hear how the positive effects of our missionary work has been received by the Armenian Community of Atlanta, Georgia. As you well know, distance does create barriers however, the spirit of Christ unifies us as Armenian Christians no matter where we may be or in whatever circumstances we may find ourselves. We pray that in the future through our efforts the Armenian community in Atlanta will be able to organize themselves into a permanent parish community of faithful members of the Armenian Church.

We are concerned about your observations regarding Father Najarian's view and will certainly convey them to him.

With prayers,

Abp. K. Barsamian

Archbishop Khajag Barsamian
Primate
