

St. Mary's Church Sunday School Report

1969

The objectives of the Sunday School are as follows:

- (1) To build a Christian character in the child
- (2) To instill in him a love of God
- (3) To develop within the child a love and understanding and respect for the Armenian Church, her priests, and traditions
- (4) To emphasize the spiritual life as a real life in this world and in heaven.

The Sunday School is fortunate this year to have the following able and dedicated staff:

Assistant Superintendent: Mrs. Rosemary Arkoian
Special Projects: Mrs. Diane Ekizian
Instructional Materials: Dr. Charles Kumkumian
Music: Mr. Casper Kasparian

Teachers:

Nursery: Miss Delores Baldadian
5 & 6 yr.: Miss Ann Kavookian
7 & 8 yr.: Mrs. Denise Manouelian
9 & 10 yr.: Miss Malvina Brown
11 & 12 yr.: Miss Rita Jerrehian
13 & over: Dr. Edward Onanian

Substitutes:

Miss Noel Ohanian
Mr. Allen Kazanjian

With such an excellent staff and the fine guidance of Bishop Varjabedian, the Sunday School should realize rapid improvement. However, since the future of our church depends upon our youth, we must constantly strive to increase the number of students attending Sunday School. To effectively increase our enrollment, we need the support and assistance of the total parish.

At the end of the year 1969, our treasury shows a balance of $274.91 which will be used to buy any necessary equipment and materials, with a total of 39 registered in the Sunday School classes.

Respectively submitted,

Arlene Sherburne,
Superintendent.
