REPORT ON ST. MARY'S BOOK STALL - 1974

The Book Stall, ably managed by Mrs. Dicran Jamgochian, was an innovation this year. This service offered for sale books, purchased from the Diocese on a consignment basis, and records from the Diocese as well as other sources.

It was a facility designed to disseminate Armenian culture by making available to our parishioners and guests a variety of books on Armenian cultural subjects and Armenian records, which proved to be responsive to an urgent need. It also yielded a modest profit for the church.

As of November 15, 1974, a sum of approximately $220.00 was realized from the sale of books and records.

Respectfully submitted,

S. A. Essefian, Chairman
Parish Council
(in the absence of Mrs. Jamgochian)
