There are 75 paid members in the Women's Guild. General membership meetings are held once a month and the times and format of our meeting have changed this year to afford more women to attend. Executive meetings are scheduled when needed.

Calendar of Activities for 1993

JANUARY

- The Annual Armenian Christmas Dinner was sponsored by the Guild and was organized by the PTA. A wonderful program was performed by the Shornali School students, and the Guild donated $1000 to the School.
- Members volunteered to help sort and box clothes that were donated for Operation: Winter Rescue.

FEBRUARY

- Lenten Festival food workshops.

MARCH

- Lenten Dinner and Observance of Women Saints' Day.
- Two day Lenten Food Festival.
- Special Easter Fellowship Hour and sale of Cheoreg after church services.

APRIL

- Armenian Day - Old Town, members made Armenian delicacies and manned food booths.

MAY

- Sent 2 delegates to Women's Guild Conference in Chicago.
- Hampartzoom - Veejag Celebration and Luncheon. Honored 2 members as "Mothers of the Year".

JUNE

- Atlantic City - 2 bus loads of members and friends enjoyed a day out.

SEPTEMBER

- Embassy of the Republic of Armenia - the Guild assisted by making and donating Armenian appetizers to help host the Celebration of the Second Anniversary of the Independence of Armenian.
- Hosted a reception for a Delegation from the Armenian Parliament.

OCTOBER

- Cultural Committee - presented Sahan Arzruni in an all Aram Kachaturian Program in the Performing Arts Center at Montgomery College, on the occasion of the composer Kachaturian's Ninetieth Anniversary.
- Bazaar food workshops.

NOVEMBER

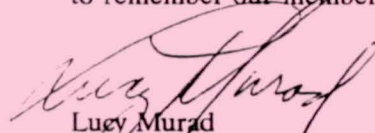

- The Annual Bazaar - our members diligently worked one month prior to and during the 4 days of the bazaar.

DECEMBER

- Over 40 members attended our Christmas party hosted by Debby and Ken Kalunian. The evening's highlight was our 1st annual Chinese Auction.

We would like to thank and recognize the following committees for doing an outstanding job: Our Visiting Committee and other members who phone and visit the elderly and ill. The Altar Committee who clean and polish the brass and beautify the altar. The Mahs Committee and the Social Services Committee who help provide necessities to our people in need. The Cultural Committee, providing our community with exciting programs. The Devotional Committee brings us inspirational thoughts, our Ways and Means Committee who bring our Guild exciting new projects.

We wish to thank Der Hayr and Yertzgin for their guidance and assistance as well as the Parish Council for their support. We would like to thank all the ladies who chaired the functions listed above and we would like to remember our members who were not with us during the year due to failing health.
