Dear Mr. Tchilinguirian:

Thank you for your kind invitation to Toronto, which will be taken into consideration by the Committee responsible for arranging the Vehapar's itinerary. We are unable to make any definite commitment yet, except to say that it will be impossible for the visit to take place on a week-end, but we will in due course advise you of the Committee's decision.

We pray that God grant you and your family joy, health and peace in the new year.

Prayerfully,

Archbishop Torkom Manoogian
Primate
