Progress Report of The Consulting Architect

With regard to the relocation of Holy Trinity Armenian Church Project on a one acre parcel of land at the corner of Markham Rd. and Progress Court in Scarborough; the preliminary plans have already been prepared by me and submitted to the Scarborough Planning Board during an initial meeting with the municipal authorities.

It is my expert opinion that at this stage, based on my discussions with the Planning Board members, the severance of the parcel of land from the AGBU property is an almost absolute certainty. I do not anticipate any possible problems whatsoever.

The official approval for the construction of our church on that parcel of land will be forthcoming following final approval by the Borough Council in the very near future.

My professional stand with regard to the success of the severance procedure is a positive one and is in support of the Parish Council to proceed with its own procedures toward the transfer of title.

Respectfully yours,

Takvor Hopyan, Architect
