

April 14, 1982

His Eminence Archbishop Iakovos
Primate of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese in North and South America
10 East 79th Street
New York, New York 10021

Your Eminence:

We regretfully wish to inform you that the Holy Cross Armenian Church parish of Toronto, Canada, was declared dissolved by the Diocesan Council on February 21, 1982.

This unfortunate decision was necessitated by the unruly behavior and actions of the members of the Holy Cross parish for over two years.

The clergy, parish councils and representatives of the Armenian Apostolic Church of America are directed to cease and refrain from communicating with or recognizing such a parish in Toronto, Canada.

This is to inform you that the said Holy Cross Armenian Church Corporation of Toronto is in no way affiliated with the Armenian Church and/or the Diocese of the Armenian Church of America.

This corporation to our knowledge is a lay corporation.

Thank you for your kind consideration in this matter.

Prayerfully,

Archbishop Torkom Manoogian
Primate