Att: Syraun Palvetzian

Dear Ms. Palvetzian,

On October 22 you wrote me a letter asking for a renewal of my St. Vartan Stewardship. I made two calls to the Diocese to talk to you about this matter. On the second call, after a waiting period, I talked to the lady who answered the phone. She could not help me, so I was given to the book-keeper I explained to him that my Stewardship money was turned into the Holy Cross Church, Lawrence, Ma., on 9/25/76 and was so noted on the monthly statement. On this same statement of 9/25/76 there are two other names of Stewards. Also on the April 14th statement there is another steward listed.

I told all this to the book keeper who informed me that the yellow copies were not kept, so there is no record of these Stewards. I cannot understand why the system demands the yellow copies and then does not even look at them.

I am the treasurer of The Holy Cross Church of Lawrence, Ma., so I know the monies were received and accordingly sent into the Diocese. Somehow there is an apparent lack of communication regarding stewards which should be looked into.

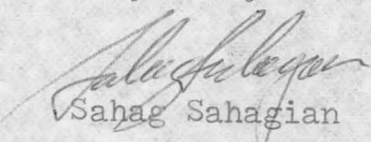

The Four Stewards of the Holy Cross Church:

Arthur Azarian
Jack Kachanian
Robert Magarian
Sahag Sahagian

Salem, NH
Methuen, Ma.
Peabody, Ma.
Salem, Ma.

May I receive a reply verifying these Stewards.

Very Truly Yours,

Sahag Sahagian
