If you've ever dreamed of having an exciting on-going mission program, designed by knowledgeable mission leaders to meet the particular needs of your church, here is a unique opportunity to start making that dream a reality . . . without investing hours of research, study, experimentation and hundreds of dollars in a shelf full of books.

The Louis Neibauer Co. has developed a new and easy-to-use manual to build mission commitment and support. The manual "How to Build a Mission Program in the Local Church" brings experience, advice, encouragement, background, techniques and promotional materials into the hands of every church leader.

UNQUALIFIED APPROVAL OF MISSION LEADERS
This unique new manual has the unqualified approval of many mission leaders who say:

"We have been greatly impressed with the materials you have sent us. You are performing a remarkable service in gathering the best of ideas from various sources relating to missions and missionary programming. The quality and thoroughness of this work make it one of the finest tools we know to place in the hands of local pastors and lay people who wish to do an effective job of missionary education and promotion."

"The coordinated materials make it possible to provide local churches with a unified thrust for missions with inter-related materials.

"I believe this to be a very significant contribution to the development of missionary interest in local churches. The local pastor, missionary chairman, and others interested in missions will find a wealth of material to help them provide a challenging missionary program."

TWO YEARS IN PREPARATION—The manual was more than two years in preparation. Mission agency executives, denominational leaders, seminary mission professors, mission association heads, church association administrators, missionaries and pastors all over the country were consulted for ideas and suggestions. Copies of the manuscript were sent to experts throughout the country for reading, corrections and suggestions.

The contents of the manual reflect the combined thinking of many who cooperated to make this the most comprehensive manual on church programming for missions ever offered.

A sample kit containing 21 promotional aids featuring a Mission Conference concluding with a Faith-Promise commitment is available at $3.50 each or $15.00 when ordered with the manual.

HERE'S WHAT A STEWARDSHIP PROGRAM WILL DO FOR YOUR CHURCH

1. STEWARDSHIP MOTIVATES CHURCH MEMBERS TO COMMIT MORE TIME, TALENT AND MONEY TO THE WORK OF THE CHURCH. Everyone has something of value to commit to the work of Christ. Stewardship programming confronts all members with their responsibilities to the Lord for what He has given.
2. STEWARDSHIP MAKES COMMITMENT A THOUGHTFUL, DELIBERATE ACT RATHER THAN A HAPHAZARD MATTER. Effective programming enables members to re-evaluate their time, talent and financial commitments to the church.
3. STEWARDSHIP AIDS IN LAY DEVELOPMENT, TRAINING AND PARTICIPATION. A well-planned stewardship program involves many members. A strong and effective lay leadership is developed that will lead and support church programs.
4. STEWARDSHIP IMPROVES COMMUNICATION BETWEEN CHURCH LEADERS AND THE CONGREGATION. Clear communication with good feedback increases involvement. A stewardship program opens up communication between leaders and members.
5. STEWARDSHIP HAS GREAT SPIRITUAL DIMENSIONS. Experience has proven that an effective stewardship program helps to revive the spiritual life of the church. Positive attitudes are developed during the program that continue to benefit the church long afterwards.
