Dear Mr. Kashian:

The Cathedral committee held a meeting last week in which decisions were made with respect to the placing of plaques for the memorials in and around the Cathedral. It was decided to create a gallery in the high-ceilinged corridor that connects the Cathedral to the baptistry, where the plaques will be placed, together with paintings, illustrations, and other significant material related to the Cathedral and to our Church. It will be artistically arranged indicating the various memorials and those who have donated them. This seems to be the most appropriate resolution of this question. Consequently, we hope that it will meet with your approval.

Sincerely yours,

Jack Antreassian
Executive Director
