Gentlemen:

Imagine our surprise upon receipt of your letter today.

I immediately checked the records for the date of the checks and their numbers so that this could be brought to your attention. I then decided to look for the cancelled checks to send you copies of these and again I was very much surprised to find that these checks are still outstanding and have never been presented for payment.

I am enclosing copies of the stubs for the two checks which we issued and mailed to you on May 21, 1971 and would ask that you please check to make sure that these are not lying around somewhere in your office. If they cannot be located, we will then have to stop payment on the checks of May 19, 1971 and issue replacement checks to cover these.

Please advise on this as soon as possible.

Very truly yours,

HEDISON MFG. CO.
