

DONATIONS - GIFTS.

Dear Mrs. Nassib:

Thank you for your letter of November 1.

Like yourself, I would like very much to resolve the matter that has taken two months, and perhaps tried your patience a little.

But I do want you to know that I have not been procrastinating.

It is simply that I have no competence in the matter of appraising the gifts of the bonds you made to our Armenian Museum, and since the attribution I made in my first letter appeared inadequate, I have had to seek the opinion of some people in the field. And this has taken time.

No one has come up with a satisfactory answer. I have been told that in monetary terms, hardly any value can be attached to them. So I am almost where I was in the beginning, unable really to give an answer that might be acceptable to you.

If you could provide some guidance, I would be appreciative.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Jack Antreassian
Executive Director
