Dear Armand:

It was very good hearing from you and I certainly hope you are enjoying this time away from the city. Although we miss you, it's nice to know that you are resting and taking care of yourself.

I am enclosing a booklet that might help you with your questions on the Cilician See. Basically, our Catholicos, Vazken I, oversees all Armenian Church affairs throughout the world. There are, however, a few major areas of ancient importance that continue to play leadership roles in the world community; we have Patriarchates in Jerusalem, Istanbul, and Cilicia (Antelias).

My prayers are with you, Armand. God is always with you, and He is with all of us, and His love and guidance gives us strength, I pray for the health of your father and your good health and happiness, always.

May the Lord bless you in all ways.

With prayers,

Father Khajag Barsamian
Canon Sacrist
