Dear Larry:

This is just a note to express my great pleasure in seeing you recently.

Serpazan Hayr tried to get in touch with you on Friday night and then again on Saturday to arrange a breakfast together, but was unable to reach you. I do hope I will see you soon - where, I'm not sure. Until then, please accept my sincere thanks for your thoughtfulness and extend my gratitude as well to your mother for her kindness in sending the most delicious pastries I have ever tasted in my life.

With best regards for the holiday season.

Yours sincerely,

Syraun Paivetzian
Executive Director
