Dear Mr. Kalaydjian:

It's been a long time since we met and I hope this letter finds you in good health and spirits.

You last visited here at Christmas, becoming on that occasion, a cherished godfather of the Churorhnek ceremony, and as that holiday once again approaches, we are all thinking of you. The many visitors to our Diocese continue to express their admiration and gratitude for the beautiful rug you gifted us and for us it is a constant reminder of your great kindness.

We extend our warm wishes for a joyous Christmas and a marvelous New Year and we look very forward to seeing you on your next visit to New York City.

With best regards.

Yours sincerely,

Syraun Palvetzian
Executive Director
