Rev. Archbishop Torkom Manoogian,
Primate, Armenian Church of America,
630 Second Avenue,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear Reverant:

Thank you for your letter of August 9th, and for your kind words. I am happy to donate 500 copies of "The Adventures of an Armenian Boy", a book which I have written, which is true story as I have lived in my childhood. There is not one word which is modified to glorify myself or anybody else, to make the story interesting. As you read the book you will see the picture as it was in those days, which has not been told so completely and unbiased any place else. I remember poor Der Sahag, who finally gave his life trying to help the other suffering Armenians, instead of caring for himself, as we were all trying to do. I hope you will read the book.

I am planning to send the books to 630 Second Avenue, N.Y. either by parcil post, in boxes of eight each, which have not been opened. or all of them together by a trucking company. It may take a little time, but I am sure you will receive them in about a month.

Thank you for accepting the books as a gift. The reason I have insasted to sell the books for the benefit of the church, is the fact that people do not appreciate or read a book, given to them without cost. I hope you do appreciate my point of view.

Respectfully,

James K. Sutherland
