Dear Mr. Dingilian:

We deeply appreciate your generous gesture in donating to our Diocesan Headquarters the book display rack and bulletin board that have so beautified the entrance to our building. They are both decorative and utilitarian.

We were grateful for the art with which you designed and built these, and now are doubly so for the gift you have made of them. They are surely worth a great deal more to us than the $300 or $400 they would normally cost.

Best personal regards to you and to the members of the family.

Prayerfully,

ARCHBISHOP TORKOM MANOOGIAN
Primate
