Dear Dr. Sutherland:

It was with great pleasure that we received the two manuscripts you were kind enough to send us. We are devoting every spare moment we have to its examination, and we shall soon contact a reputable appraiser to set at least a tentative value on them.

We will submit the appraisals to you at the earliest possible moment, and hope we may be able to discuss any questions you may have concerning them.

We certainly understand the sentiments you express in your letter of June 16, and appreciate how much the manuscripts mean to you. This makes the prospect of the gift an even more generous gesture.

May you enjoy the best of health in soul and body.

With blessings,

ARCHBISHOP TORKOM MANOOGIAN
Primate
