Dear Sarkis:

I have not heard from you for quite sometime now and I was wondering if you forgot to mail out your usual annual remittance on your pledge.

I just thought I should drop you a line to remind you as you are one of the rare friends whom I can approach for help whenever needed and believe me, money is always needed.

I will look forward to your nice answer.

Kind personal regards.

Sincerely,

Haik Kavookjian
