Dear Sarkis:

I have not heard from you since you brought me that nice bottle of Mastica.

I hope everything is okay with you and you and yours are enjoying good health.

I was wondering if you wouldn't want to clear up that old pledge for $10,000 by sending me a last check for $1000. It is almost a year since I lastived your last check and I believe I got used to hearing from you once a year.

With kind personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

Haik Kavookjian
