FRIDAY NIGHT SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

March 19, 7:30 p.m.

SARIG Folksinger

Mrs. Herrmann (nee Antreassian) is a young folk singer who recently cut her first record, an artistic and popular success. She has appeared in Off-Broadway and Greenwich Village musicals, and has done dramatic interpretations of American poetry. She performed at the Village Gate and the Village Gaslight.

March 26, 9:00 p.m.

WOMAN IN THE DUNES
Teshigahara's allegorical tale

In this strangely poetic drama of a man and woman trapped at the bottom of a sand dune is encompassed a disturbing allegory of the fate of man in the world — a strong expression of the enslavement of the spirit by all the demands of environment. Stunningly directed and played. (On March 26 the film is scheduled for 9:00 p.m. because of a special program in the Cathedral, a concert by the St. Vladimir Seminary Choir which will include two Armenian numbers prepared for this occasion.)

April 2, 7:30 p.m.

ED SETRAKIAN Lecture on "The New Theater"

Mr. Setrakian is a director, actor, writer, and lecturer. He directed in summer stock, and at La Mama, an exceptional experimental theater group, and is involved with the Loft Theater Workshop. His acting experience ranges from Shakespeare and Brecht to Saroyan. He has written several plays, presently reworking an adaptation of Turgenyev.

April 16, 7:30 p.m.

THE BLUE ANGEL
Von Sternberg's legendary masterpiece

Josef von Sternberg's legendary film is popularly known as the movie that launched the career of Marlene Dietrich; among film historians it is acclaimed as a work of screen art, among psychologists as the classic study of sadomasochism. It can be looked at and admired sequence by sequence because it's brilliantly made.

April 30, 7:30 p.m.

DR. ANNETTE BAXTER
"Some Thoughts on Women"

Mrs. Baxter is Professor of History at Barnard and acting chairman of their American Studies Program. She is a Trustee of Kirkland College. Her chairmanship of Barnard's sub-committee on curriculum of Women's Studies is an indication of her involvement in the field. She has published several articles on literature and history.

May 7, 7:30 p.m.

HIROSHIMA MON AMOUR
Resnais' poetic statement

Hiroshima Mon Amour comprises a documentary of Hiroshima past and present, and an indictment of our forgetfulness and atomic madness. It deals with human situations of a complexity rarely handled in the cinema and in treating these themes it discards the conventional notions of plot and story development.

May 14, 7:30 p.m.

PROFESSOR JAMES ETMEKJIAN
Lecture on "Nineteenth Century Turkish Reforms and the Armenians"

Mr. Etmekjian has taught at several universities and secondary schools in the field of foreign languages, frequently acting as department head. He lectured at the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and Brown University in the Armenian language and civilization. Mr. Etmekjian has published several books and articles on French language and literature and on language instruction.

May 28, 7:30 p.m.

ON THE WATERFRONT Marlon Brando's angry rebel

Artistry, anger, and some horrible truths have been forged into On the Waterfront, as violent and indelible a film record of man's inhumanity to man as has come to light . . . it is an uncommonly powerful, exciting and imaginative use of the screen by gifted professionals.

June 4, 7:30 p.m.

ARCHBISHOP TIRAN NERSOYAN Lecture on "The Church in Our Time"

Scholar and churchman, Archbishop Tiran is an authority on Armenian Church history and traditions. He has been deeply concerned about the relevance of the Church to contemporary life, and about the needs of our newer generations. He is ideally qualified to discuss the place of the Church in modern society.

June 11, 7:30 p.m.

THE PETRIFIED FOREST Robert E. Sherwood's moral fable

In an isolated greasy spoon, some gangsters on the run, a wandering idealist, and a girl with dreams of glamour rub against each other to strike sparks of pointed rhetoric. In his first role of importance, Humphrey Bogart etches a devastating portrait of Duke (Public Enemy No. 1) Mantee's massive nihilism.

Friday night at the Gulbenkian Center will create an informal environment in which people can meet casually and participate in activities, both organized and unorganized. Formal programs will generally be scheduled between 7:30 and 9:00 p.m. Before and after these, there will be such activities as ping-pong and tavloo—with tournaments being planned—and taped music for dancing or listening. Coffee will be available all evening. Friday night at the Center can be either a meeting place or a gathering place, for the entire evening or for any part of it, for the scheduled program or for related activities. Everyone is welcome. There will be a $1.00 admission for each person.
